Routine Notes.—

Submitted.

It is ascertained that in the Secretariat, each menial is given 15 yds of white drill and 10 yds of white mull at a cost of about Rs 15/- in all.

The total cost of providing clothing to 2 peons and 1 attender in our office on the Secretariat scale will be Rs 45/- at Rs 15/- each.

There has been so far no separate provision made in the budget for this expenditure. But, however, in the current year, under establishment charges there will be savings of about Rs 400/- . If approved, the extra cost that may have to be incurred during the current year may be met out of the savings referred to above, ~~with~~ by obtaining sanction of the Finance Department for the reappropriation. Sanction of govt in the G.R. branch has to be obtained for the supply of clothings

Submitted for orders. To Govt thro with Compliments.

To

The Inspector of Office Systems,

Bangalore.

Respected Sir,

I the undersigned Abdul Wahid a permenant peon of the General and Revenue Secretariat came to this Office on 1st January 1925 and ever since I came to this office I have not been supplied with clothing and therefore I humbly request I may be kindly sent back to my old place so as to enable me to get the clothing.

I beg to remain,

Respected Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Abdul Wahid

21st May 1928.

Sd/- Abdul Wahib.
Peon, Office of the Inspector of Office Systems,
Bangalore.

Issue forthwith.

SD 24/5/28

The office has continued for more than 2 years and his work is quite also.

I think it is reasonable that the Municipal Staff may also who has dealt with like the peons in the Secretariat.

The real question is one of finance. Whether the office can be relieved and how can it be met. There are 2 peons & 1 Attender
